—— Our Philosophy ——

The Importance of the Student

The student is the most important person in our college. He is not dependent on us – we are dependent on him. The student is not an interruption in our daily routine – he is the purpose of it.

The student does us a favor when he comes to our campus. We are not doing him a favor when we serve him. He is part of our college – not an outsider.

The student is not a cold statistic, he's a flesh-and-blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own. He is not a name or a face or a number – he's an individual.

The student is not someone to argue or to match wits with. He is a person who brings us his wants. It's our job to fill those wants.

The student is the life blood of this or any other college. He is the person who buys our services, pays our salaries, and goes to the polls and votes.

The student, therefore, deserves the most courteous and attentive treatment we can give him. Anonymous

OVC CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONS

On a wet, miserable Saturday morning the cross country team ran away with the Ohio Valley Championship. The victory marked the first time in history that a team from the State of Tennessee had ever won the title. The Bucs' point total was almost twice that of runnerup Murray State. Following the OVC triumph, Coach Dave Walker's harriers competed in the NCAA and recorded the highest finish an OVC entry has ever had . . .

WERE READY TO RUN . . .'

The Irish came . . . the Irish saw . . . the Irish conquered. The Irish Brigade—Eddie Leddy, P. J. Leddy, Patsy Durnin and Neil Cusack—combined to bring international flavor to the cross country scene. It all began four years ago when Coach Dave Walker left the Tennessee hills to recruit Michael Heery from the Ould Sod, and it hasn't ended yet. Each year other Irishmen have found Tennessee a good place to run and live and learn and love . . .

Somebody wins—Somebody loses—but everybody plays . . .

The Busy Man's Creed

I believe in the stuff I am handing out, in the firm I am working for; and in my ability to get results. I believe that honest stuff can be passed out to honest men by honest methods. I believe in working, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of my job. I believe that a man gets what he goes after, that one deed done today is worth two deeds tomorrow, and that no man is down and out until he has lost faith in himself. I believe in today and the work I am doing, in tomorrow and the work I hope to do, and in the sure reward which the future holds.

I believe in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship and in honest competition. I believe there is something doing somewhere, for every man ready to do it. I believe I'm ready—RIGHT NOW.

IN MEMORIUM

If time does not go with thee as thou wishest, go thou with time as he requires . . . for time takes what it gives and disperses what it gathers . . .

Vivian Broyles
Van Wiseman Carter
Ann Marie Dorris
John Howard Eskes
Robert McKinney
Jody Muse
James Edward Williams

Riches and all worldly things perish, but memories remain forever, . . . and I'll remember.

To the student . . . a seeker of knowledge, the genius from his own time . . . to those who have decided, ignorance is no companion . . .

this is a yearbook,
this is a record of time, a collage of frozen moments, pages of moods and feelings . . .

dedicated to . . .

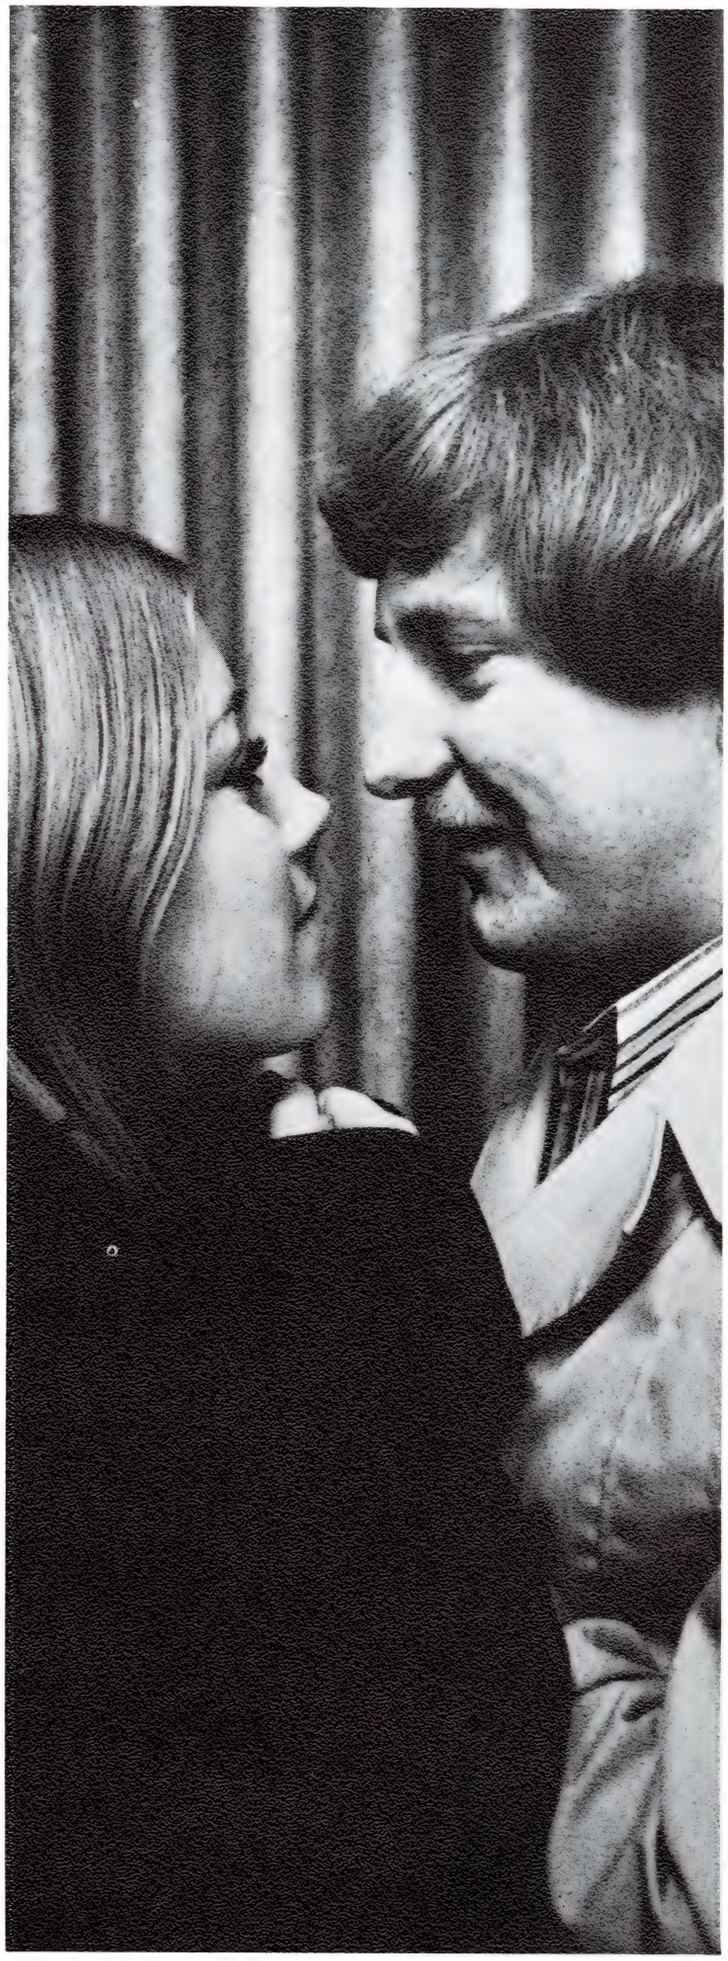

observers, conservers, politicians, technicians, athletic, apathetic, benders, menders, paupers, and Kings . . .

Lovers . . . of the good times, good friends, and each other . . .

schemer

dreamers . . .

participators,

procrastinators, demonstrators spectators . . .

to you . . . all of you.

Every moment of time carries away a part of thy life . . . you were a part of the moment . . . it is now a part of you.
